

Hidden Gems of the Internet

Explore the Web's Best Kept Secrets

1. The Useless Web

- Content: Randomly redirects you to weird and quirky websites that are surprisingly entertaining.
- URL: <https://theuselessweb.com>

2. Radio Garden

- Content: Lets you explore live radio stations around the world on an interactive globe.
- URL: <https://radio.garden>

3. Window Swap

- Content: View the world through someone else's window via user-submitted videos.
- URL: <https://www.window-swap.com/>

4. Pointer Pointer

- Content: Finds a random photo where someone is pointing exactly at your cursor location.
- URL: <https://pointerpointer.com/>

5. A Soft Murmur

- Content: Customise ambient sounds (rain, wind, waves, etc.) to relax or focus.
- URL: <https://asoftmurmur.com/>

6. This Is Sand

- Content: A creative website where you can create beautiful sandscapes by pouring digital sand.
- URL: <https://thisissand.com/>

7. Neal.fun

- Content: Play with engaging, simple tools and simulations, like "Draw Your Island" or "The Deep Sea."
- URL: <https://neal.fun/>

8. Zoom Earth

- Content: Explore real-time satellite images, including weather patterns and environmental changes.
- URL: <https://zoom.earth/>

9. MapCrunch

- Content: Teleports you to a random location on Google Street View anywhere in the world.
- URL: <https://www.mapcrunch.com/>

10. Wait But Why

- Content: Deep, quirky blog posts on a wide range of topics, from AI to procrastination.
- URL: <https://waitbutwhy.com/>